Bombay Collection

Sheher-e-kahani

A feeling, worn.
A story, painted.

A city that never sleeps,
from the sea breeze to
the street sounds, it's
the city of hopes and dazzling lights— we're
hand painting stories,
one piece at a time.

It never stays still, now
held gently in stillness.
Bombay is the seen, the felt and the in-between.

The collection is inspired from the city of beloved Bombay (Mumbai), India

In the cracks of old walls and the corners of quiet streets— it spoke to us, of chai stalls and cinema halls, balconies and backlanes.

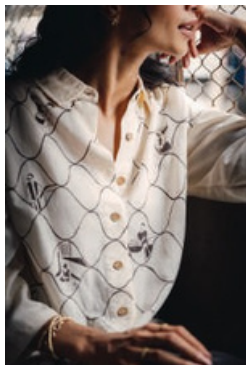

We've hand-painted the city's soul— onto clothes that feel like home. Explore stories that wear the city on their sleeve.

taxi drivers at ease, swapping

the morning paper.

Turn around, and the mood shifts—coming alive with kaali peelis racing out of CST, echoing the urgency, energy, and endless movement of Mumbai.

and every stop is only a moment before the next beginning.

The overlay shows people gathered in anticipation— different lives, one moment.
